

BOARD OF DIRECTORS NONDISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

The undersigned recognizes and acknowledges:

The services the Haines City Economic Development Council ("EDC") performs for its clients are confidential and that to enable the EDC to perform those services, its clients furnish to the EDC confidential information concerning their affairs; that the goodwill of the EDC depends, among other things, upon its keeping such services and information confidential; and that by reason of the Board of Director's duties, the Board Member may come into possession of client information or information concerning the services performed by the EDC for its clients, even though the Board Member does not take any direct part in or furnish the services performed for those clients.

The Board Member accordingly agrees that, except as directed by the EDC, the Board Member will not at any time during or after his/her tenure with the EDC disclose any of such services or information to any person whatsoever, or permit any person whatsoever to examine or make copies of any reports or other documents prepared by the EDC, or coming into his/her possession under his/her control, that have in any way to do with the clients or functions of the EDC. The Board Member recognizes that the disclosure of information by the Board Member may give rise to irreparable injury to the EDC or to the owner of such information, and that accordingly, the EDC or the owner of such information may seek any legal remedies against the Board Member which may be available. Disclosure of information by the Board Member will result in cause for immediate resignation from the Board of Director's.

The Board Member further agrees that he/she will at all times comply with all EDC policies and security regulations in effect from time to time for all materials belonging or relating to the EDC.

I have read all of this Nondisclosure Agreement, I understand it, and agree to abide by its terms.
